Headform and Headshape:

European headform:

European headform is characterized by an oval shape, which is wider at the sides than it is front-to-back.

headform:

Generic headform is characterized by a more rounded shape, which is wider front-to-back than it is side-to-side.

Asian headform:

Asian headform is characterized by a round shape, which is wider front-to-back than it is side-to-side, and is considerably different from the other two.

Helmet Shape 101

European Headform

An Oval shaped helmet is designed for a rider's head with a dimension which is considerably fit for Europeans.

Generic headform

A generic headform helmet is designed for a rider's head with a dimension which is slightly longer front-to-back than its side-to-side measurement.

Asian headform

A Round shaped helmet is designed for a rider's head with a dimension which is considerably fit for Asians.

Headform and Headshape:

Headform and headshape are important factors in determining the fit and comfort of a helmet. The three main headforms are European, Generic, and Asian.
